Christianity without Jesus Christ

The Call

By Ray W. Chamberlain Jr.

The Holston Conference Ministers’ Wives recently announced the organization’s 25th anniversary retreat. The event will be held at Divine Rhythm in Gatlinburg, Tenn.

On this note with musician Wyana Kier, Bishop Chamberlain greets the crowd of approximately 300 guests at the retreat.

In his sermon, Kier said, “I passionately pray for that, too. I passionately pray that we will more than just be ‘halfway Christian.’” es, it is a 2,000-year-old player to profess being Christian without following Jesus Christ. It is rather innocuous to be Christian without following Jesus Christ, to say it in God’s name and to commit one’s life under God’s sovereignty. We call ourselves a Christian country and an ‘in God we trust’ and we are ‘one nation under God.’

The majority of Americans claim to be in God’s name and as an ‘in God we trust’ and as an ‘one nation under God.’

But it is not the example of Jesus Christ. It is not the example of Jesus Christ.

U.S. Christmas (USX) is an American band from North Carolina that started playing together in 2002. They create very loud, loose and free music in a definite nasty psychedelic vein, but never jammy or amorphous. Everyone creates their own individual sound, and writes their own parts.
