A fiscal year (or financial year, or sometimes budget year) is used in government accounting, which varies between countries, and for budget purposes. It is also used for financial reporting by businesses and other organizations. Laws in many jurisdictions require company financial reports to be prepared and published on an annual basis, but generally do not require the reporting period to align with the calendar year (1 January to 31 December). Taxation laws generally require accounting records to be prepared and published on a fiscal year basis.

The Annual Plan & Budget Proposal for Fiscal Year 2021 focuses on three emerging areas: the immune system and microbiome, artificial intelligence, and implementation science. There are many more areas that need to be addressed as well.

2. Percent change since fiscal year 2013. Our investments must not only support cutting-edge research but also strengthen the infrastructure that enables innovation and trains a diverse and talented workforce for the important work ahead. An unprecedented enthusiasm has permeated the research community.

The immunotoxin, which was developed in NCIâ€™s intramural research program, induced a high rate of durable responses and eliminated detectable disease with acceptable side effects. A fiscal year is a one-year period that companies and governments use for financial reporting and budgeting. A fiscal year is most commonly used for accounting purposes to prepare financial statements. Although a fiscal year can start on January 1st and end on December 31st, not all fiscal years correspond with the calendar year. For example, universities often begin and end their fiscal years according to the school year.

Below are examples of annual 10-K reports from popular companies. A 10-K is an annual filing of financial performance, according to their fiscal year, which is filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission or SEC. Apple Inc. (AAPL) ends its fiscal year on the last business day of September and in 2018, fell on the 29th.

Apple Fiscal Year Example. The Financial Plan Summary table below shows anticipated revenues and expenditures for all years of the Plan as well as the average annual percentage changes in each category of revenue and expenditure. Fiscal 2019 Preliminary Financial Plan Summary. Fiscal 2019 Preliminary Financial Plan Summary. While the Financial Plan includes a modest increase in budgeted headcount for Fiscal 2019, the City anticipates spending over $27 billion on salaries and wages in Fiscal 2019, an increase of 4.8 percent from Fiscal 2018. Spending on salaries and wages will increase by an average of 1.3 percent annually through Fiscal 2022.

Annual Performance Plan for Fiscal Year 2019 Revised Performance Plan for Fiscal Year 2018 Annual Performance Report for Fiscal Year 2017. Table of Contents. A Message from the Acting Commissioner. In fiscal year 2018, approximately 71 million individuals will depend on the benefits we provide. It is my honor to serve as Acting Commissioner of the agency responsible for this important work. From my first day in this role, I have made it clear that we must be mission-focused and mission-driven.